

FRUIT CRUSH ISLAND – PRIVACY POLICY TERM

Is my personal information collected?

No, we do not collect your personal information.

What kind of information is collected?

The information collected is restricted to the usage of the game only. Data like how many times a button is clicked, what options are being deactivated or activated, what level is the most played, and others, are examples of what is being collected in the game.

What is the goal of collecting this data?

To improve the user experience while playing the game.

Third party links

If you have an internet connection while playing, some advertisement links eventually will be shown on some game screens. Those third-party links have their own privacy policy term. We do not have any responsibility for the presented content in those advertisement banners and neither the activity or content of the linked websites. If you find something inappropriate in those advertisements, please, let us know.

Game exclusive privacy policy term

This privacy policy term applies only to the information collected by Fruit Crush Island only and not to other games developed by Silver Games or its websites.

Your consent

While playing our game, you do agree to this privacy policy term.
